

Chef wanted

- Do you enjoy cooking and have a heart for seeing people reach their true potential?
- Could you work alongside our current chef to take responsibility for the day-to-day running of our kitchen and the provision of lunch (up to 50 people) and dinner (up to 25 people)?
- Do you have the ability to set boundaries, challenge appropriately and manage conflict positively and constructively?

You could be the person we are looking for to join our friendly staff team at Yeldall Manor, a residential Christian addiction recovery centre for men near Twyford. The rewarding role would include:

- Ensuring that nutritious meals are provided, and that food hygiene and Health & Safety protocols are adhered to
- Supervising residents allocated to the kitchen, providing meaningful and positive work for them
- Supporting residents by interacting with them and encouraging them in their recovery and spiritual growth

Working hours: Full-time (40 hours per week, including some weekends but no evenings), but a part-time role may also be available

Salary: £24,410 – £27,464 (or pro rata).

Job description and application pack are available on <https://www.charityjob.co.uk/jobs/yeldall-manor/chef-at-christian-based-recovery-charity/948929> or by emailing suehedger@yeldall.org.uk

For an informal conversation about this role please contact merrick@yeldall.org.uk / 0118 940 4411

Closing date for applications: 9am, Friday 23rd February 2024

Yeldall Manor is a Christian organisation, and this role has an occupational requirement that the successful candidate be a committed and practising Christian (in accordance with Schedule 9 of the Equality Act 2010). This position is subject to a satisfactory criminal records check or enhanced DBS check. If you are in recovery, a minimum of two years' demonstrable clean time is required.
