ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH OF ST JOHN BOSCO, WOODLEY

Sunday 22nd March

4th Sunday in LENT- Year A

FR. BILL WRITES: As you probably know, all public acts of worship in Catholic Churches in the country have now been suspended indefinitely.

Funerals will be confined to crematorium and grave-side services. Baptisms and wedding should be postponed if possible.

At SJB the doors of the church will remain open until 6pm each day allowing access to the main church Chapel for those who wish to pray or light a candle.

We ask you please during this time not to physically enter the office but to use the glass screen and to come into the office space via the front door, not the Newman Centre.

Additionally, the bishop has asked that all priests in "at risk" groups, should withdraw from face-to-face ministry for three months. As one of those priests, I am being asked to self-isolate for the next 12 weeks. I will still be working via email and telephone and Debs has my every confidence that she will hold the fort admirably.

The bishop asks that priests continue to say the usual parish Masses, but in private. I will do this in the Lady Chapel each day except Monday, but not at the usual times. If you are happy for your intention to be offered by me in this way, that would be great. However, if you would rather postpone your Mass intention for whatever reason, I quite understand. In that case, please contact Debs who will be happy to rearrange the date of the Mass, though it will not be for some time.

Please pray for one another and look out for one another. If there is someone alone and struggling, please call the office and we'll see how we can help.

Always Kindly,

Fr. Bill.

[Full details of the decree will be available to collect from the church foyer at any time as the doors of the church will now remain open 24hrs a day.]

FRANK DODD: It is with great sadness that we inform you that Frank Dodd has died this week. Because of the present situation there is only the option of a graveside service. This will take place this Thursday at 2.30pm at St. Andrew's Graveyard, Sonning. Our thoughts and prayers go to Mary, his wife, and their family. Please pray for them at this very difficult time.

Today's Psalm Response:

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

BISHOP PHILIP WRITES: During this national emergency, it is the Church's task to do what she always does: to call on the prayers of Our Lady and our Patron Saints and to pray earnestly and trustingly to God our Father.

Here is a prayer you can say from the Manual of Catholic Prayer:

Lord Jesus Christ, true physician and heavenly medicine, be merciful to us and bring us aid. Heal all our sickness, Lord. Heal every malady that afflicts Thy people. Banish our infirmities of soul and body. Rid us of all disease and pestilence. And in Thy pity, deal also with the causes of our evil plight, so that, in curing our perverseness, Thou mayest also remedy our bodily ills. Amen.

This comes from the Bishop's e-news. To subscribe go to: www.portsmouthdiocese.org.uk/enews Catholics are dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass for the duration of these measures. However, the bishops encourage them to watch live-streaming of Mass and make a spiritual communion.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.
